Madrid, May 11.

AN Extraordinary Courier arriving here from Barcelona, with advice, that the French Army commanded by the Mareschal de Belfonds, was entred into Catalonia, the Marquis de Liganez, Viceroy of Navarre, who hath obtained the Kings leave to serve this Campagne in the command he hath had for several years of General of the Horse in Catalonia, took Post this Morning for Barcelona; and in the mean time the Government of Navarre is committed to the Marquis de Conflans. On the fourth Instant there was a review of the antient Guards of Castile, divided into 24 Companies, 100 men in each, in the presence of the Constable of Castille, who as Major Domo-Major, or great Master of the Houshold, commands all the Kings Guards, but the Companies not being compleat, another review is appointed on the 16th Instant. The King has thought fit to establish a Junto, or Extraordinary Council, composed of the Duke de Medina Celi, the Chief Minister, the Constable of Castille, the Marquis d'Astorgas, the Amirante of Castille, the Prince Don Vincenzo Gonzague, and the Marquis de los Balbaces, and they have met several times at the House of the Duke de Medina Celi.

Venice, May 6. The Senate have made choice of the Procurator Angelo Morosini to go in the quadity of their Ambassador Extraordinary to the King of Poland; and he has orders to hasten his departure. The Sieur Donato, late Ambassador from the Republick at the Port, has given the Senate an account of his arrival at Suda, and that the Sieur Delfino was come thither with four Men of War to carry him to Zant. The Preparations for the War are continued with great Vigor and Application; The Fleet of this State will be at Sea about the middle of this month, and will have a great many Land-men on board. And several Troops have been sent to Dalmatia to form an Army on that side. We have advice that the Morlaques have surprized the Town and Castle of Duana, and have killed 600 Turks, and have taken 100 Prisoners. The Morlaques that are Subjects of this State, have likewise surprized the Town of Deuarez belonging to the Turks, being about twelve Miles from Almissa. Three hundred Swissers are arrived at Lido, from whence they are to be transported for Dalmatia.

Dantzick, May 18. Our Letters from Cracow of the 10th Instant inform us, that the Polish Troops were on their march to the general Rendezvous which is to be held the 20th of this month on the Frontiers of Podolia; and that in the mean time the necessary Preparations were making for the Siege of Caminiec. That the King of Poland having advice that a Body of Turks and Tartars were marching towards Valachia, had sent some Troops thither to support the Hospodar Petrizensko, whom he had some time since taken into his Protection; and that orders had been sent to the Cossacks, to have a watchful Eye upon the Enemies motions. That the King of Poland will have an Army of 60000 men of his own Troops; and that the Cossacks will make a Body of between 30 and 40000, who are to act separately. There is little said at present of the Moscovites, who seem very unwilling to engage in a War; The Truce between the Poles and them is continued for nine years; and the Commissioners that met on the Frontiers are separated and gone home.

Vienna, May 18. The Imperial Regiments do march from all Parts to the general Rendezvous in Hungary, which will be held the 26th of this month. A great many Bakers have been sent from hence to Raab and Comorra to bake Bread for the Army: And the Duke of Lorrain is in few days expected here in his way for Hungary. In the mean time the Turks assemble their Troops near Buda and Agria; and it's believed they will make a great effort to relieve Newheusel: It is confirmed that 2000 Turks had attempted to put some Provisions into that Place, but finding it could not be done, the Bassa that commanded them ventured, with twenty men, to swim the River Gran, whereof five were drowned, and himself and the rest got into Newheusel. We have advice that a Body of Turks and Tartars are marching towards Valachia, to establish there a new Hospodar, whose name is Demetrius in the place of Petrizensko who was set up by the King of Poland; and that the said Petrizensko not being in a condition to resist them, had sent to give the King of Poland an account of it; and that that King had thereupon ordered the Starost of Culm to march with a Body of Horse to his assistance.

Lintz, May 20. All things are preparing for the Campagne; and the Duke of Lorrain will part from hence the next week for Hungary. Two days since arrived here an Express from Newsol, who, we are informed, brought an account that the Turks are on their march, their Rendezvous being appointed near Agria, and that in all likelyhood they will attempt the relief of Newheusel; And that the Baron de Mercy was marched with 2500 Horse towards Vicegrad to observe them. The Bridge of Boats is finished at Comorra; That at Vienna hath suffered some damage by the late Floods, but will be soon repaired. We are told that there are Letters from Adrianople of the 10th of March, which give an account of the great disorder the Affairs of that Empire still are in; and that the People as well as the Soldiery had cast their Eye upon the Grand Signiors Brother, and that it was believed they would at last place him upon the Throne.

Ratisbonne, May 22. Our last Letters from Hungary told us, that the Turks did assemble their Troops near Agria; and that it was believed their design was to attempt the relief of Newheusel before the Imperial Army come into the Field; which has made General Caprara, who commands the Imperial Troops in Hungary, give out orders to hasten their march, and in the mean time all imaginable care is taken to secure the passages about Newheusel. The Duke of Lorrain intended to part from Lintz as this day, to put himself at the Head of the Imperial Army, with which it's said he will march directly towards Buda. It is reported that the Turks will bend their chiefest force towards Poland this Campagne, thinking it of the greatest importance
